GUY SIMMONDS

Location Report

THE NEW FOREST, HAMPSHIRE

By Stephen Taylor,

Managing Director

The licensed property market at Guy Simmonds is extremely buoyant in this first quarter of 2013, with both completions and viewings both up 25%, in the south when compared with the same period in 2012. We are urgently seeking further quality leasehold and freehold businesses throughout the whole of the country and the New Forest to satisfy our purchasers' requirements.

The New Forest, Hampshire is one of the most desirable and affluent areas in the country for our purchasers and also favoured by our delegates who have completed our award-winning training courses. We are delighted to have just been favoured as sole agents to individually offer to the market 7 superb and highly profitable inns, as separate entities. These 7 businesses have individual turnovers averaging circa £645,000, resulting in a combined gross turnover for these 7 premium outlets in excess of £4,500,000.

Undoubtedly these businesses are 'premier league' inns offering beautiful properties in stunning locations and diversely trading. There are 2 separate freehold opportunities which will be of huge interest to corporate purchaser, professional operators and entrepreneurs. One of these is the renowned freehold inn and hotel complete with 10 ensuite letting bedrooms – The Burley Inn situated in Burley, taking in excess of £500,000pa with high profits. The other freehold entirety sale is The Sir Walter Tyrell situated in the idyllic village of Brook. This site again has takings in excess of £500,000 with a gross profit in excess of £300,000 and has planning consent for 15 letting bedrooms.
