

Stephen Taylor
Managing Director
Guy Simmonds

“At Guy Simmonds, we have achieved a satisfactory level of sales during this year, considering the present market”.

“We are reaping the benefits of having invested in our own freehold training academy to introduce newcomers to the trade”.

“There are some excellent and profitable opportunities in the marketplace at the moment. Since we specialise in creating free-of-tie leases and endeavour to sell profitable quality leasehold and freehold businesses, our sales remain buoyant and we are optimistic this will continue. Our policy is to shy away from closed units and loss-making businesses”.